Vacation of Right of Way for Perbix Road/
Norfolk Southern Highway-Rail Grade Crossing

ORIGINAL

Morgan County Road District #6 meeting on November 15, 2006 resolved to vacate the right of way on Perbix Road immediately adjacent to and on both sides of the highway-rail grade crossing (AAR/DOT #479 425P, railroad milepost 454.23-WC) of Norfolk Southern Railway Company's (NS) track. This crossing is located between Jacksonville and Chapin, in Morgan County, Illinois, and is the first crossing northeast of Reining Road (AAR/DOT #479 426W, railroad milepost 454.45-WC) highway-rail grade crossing and is on the same NS track.

This vacation of Perbix Road will not become effective until the construction of the realigned Reining Road and respective connecting road between both crossings is completed, and the automatic flashing light signals and gates are installed and placed in service at the relocated Reining Road crossing, all in accordance with Illinois Commerce Commission Staff on October 18, 2006, and executed by the Road District on October 27, 2006.

Executed by the ROAD DISTRICT this 15th day of November, 2006.
